retirement benefits support

The South Carolina Public Employee Benefit Authority (PEBA) is committed to providing you with the information you need to administer your employees' retirement benefits. Here's a quick look at the resources available for 2016.

Electronic Employer Services (EES)

EES is a secure website that provides authorized users with access to their employees' member account information and the capability to enroll new employees, submit retiree return-to-work information, upload employer payroll data and prepare monthly and quarterly contribution reports (not applicable to employers on the Comptroller General's payroll). For assistance with EES access, email EES support.

Employer Manual

PEBA publishes a Covered Employer Procedures Manual on our website every fiscal year to provide you with updated information about administering PEBA's retirement plans.

Training and resources

PEBA encourages you to attend the two-day retirement benefits employer training course available at PEBA's office and regionally. View the training dates and presentations online. Other training is available, even onsite.

Employer advisory group

Our Employer Services Director has monthly open discussions with employers at PEBA. If you are interested in participating, email Employer Services at employerservices@peba.sc.gov. Dates of upcoming discussions are published in PEBA Update.

Benefits at Work conference

PEBA hosts the Benefits at Work conference each fall to provide information about and assistance in administering PEBA's benefits plans. You can also meet PEBA staff and vendor representatives, and network with your peers.

Employer organizations

PEBA's Field Services team is available to attend and present information about the benefits PEBA administers at organizational meetings or events. To request our attendance, email Field Services at fieldservices.retirement@peba.sc.gov.

Turnkey toolkits

These ready-made toolkits feature information for new employees and retirement readiness. Simply download the materials to email to your employees, post to your Intranet or print and distribute to employees who don't have access.

PEBA's YouTube channel

PEBA TV features a variety of videos about PEBA-administered benefits, including our new retirement readiness series.

Publications

Retirement plan member handbooks and other retirement publications are available on our website, www.peba.sc.gov.

Stay connected

PEBA uses the contact information in EES to distribute PEBA Update and time-sensitive emails, so please periodically review and update your employer contact information in EES.

Resources for your employees

Retirement readiness series

PEBA's be aware and prepare educational series is designed to provide information to help employees make informed decisions about their financial future.

Early- and mid-career employees seminar

PEBA now offers a seminar for employees who are beginning or are mid-way through their careers and are not eligible to retire. Email Field Services to schedule an onsite presentation of this seminar for your employees.

Updated retirement planning seminar

Each fall, PEBA hosts regional seminars designed for employees who are within a few years of retirement eligibility. The 2016 seminar includes updated retirement and insurance benefits content and features presentations from the Social Security Administration and the South Carolina Deferred Compensation Program. Employees can register online.

Onsite presentations

You can schedule onsite delivery of any of our presentations about PEBA-administered retirement benefits. We're available for your new hire orientations as well. To schedule an onsite presentation, email Field Services.

Employer-sponsored events

A great opportunity to help your employees understand and ask questions about their PEBA-administered benefits is to have our Field Services team host an exhibit table at your benefits fair or other sponsored event. To request our attendance, email Field Services.

Online account access

Member Access is the secure website through which members of a PEBA-administered retirement plan may view their account information and update their contact information. A step-by-step flier on how to register for Member Access is available.

Publications

Several online resources are available to assist employees in understanding their PEBA-administered retirement benefits including the Select Your Retirement Plan guide and member handbooks. Our retirement benefits publications are available online.
