LT.IC.01

DEFINITION OF DISABILITY

You are Disabled if you meet one of the following definitions during the period it applies:

- A. Own Occupation Definition of Disability;
- B. Any Occupation Definition of Disability; or
- C. Partial Disability Definition.

A. Own Occupation Definition Of Disability

During the Benefit Waiting Period and the Own Occupation Period you are required to be Disabled only from your Own Occupation.

You are Disabled from your Own Occupation if, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Material Duties of your Own Occupation.

Own Occupation means any employment, business, trade, profession, calling or vocation that involves Material Duties of the same general character as your regular and ordinary employment with the Employer. Your Own Occupation is not limited to your job with your Employer.

Note: You are not Disabled merely because your right to perform your Own Occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license, or because you suffer a loss of Predisability Earnings as a result of disclosure of any Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder.

B. Any Occupation Definition Of Disability

During the Any Occupation Period you are required to be Disabled from all occupations.

You are Disabled from all occupations if, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Material Duties of Any Occupation.

Any Occupation means any occupation or employment which you are able to perform, whether due to education, training, or experience, which is available at one or more locations in the national economy and in which you can be expected to earn at least 65% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings within twelve months following your return to work, regardless of whether you are working in that or any other occupation.

C. Partial Disability Definition

1. During the Benefit Waiting Period and the Own Occupation Period, you are Partially Disabled when you work in your Own Occupation but, as a result of Physical Disease, Mental Disorder, Injury or Pregnancy, you are unable to earn more than the Own Occupation Income Level.
2. During the Any Occupation Period, you are Partially Disabled when you work in an occupation but, as a result of Physical Disease, Mental Disorder, Injury or Pregnancy, you are unable to earn more than the Any Occupation Income Level in that occupation and in all other occupations for which you are reasonably fitted under the Any Occupation Definition of Disability.

Material Duties means the essential tasks, functions and operations, and the skills, abilities, knowledge, training and experience, generally required by employers from those engaged in a particular occupation.

You may work in another occupation while you meet the Own Occupation Definition of Disability. If you are Disabled from your Own Occupation, there is no limit on your Work Earnings in another occupation. Your Work Earnings may be Deductible Income. See Return To Work Incentive and Deductible Income.

Your Any Occupation Period, Any Occupation Income Level, Own Occupation Period, and Own Occupation Income Level are shown in the Coverage Features.

LT.DD.01

RETURN TO WORK PROVISIONS

A. Return To Work Responsibility

During the Own Occupation Period no LTD Benefits will be paid for any period when you are able to work in your Own Occupation and able to earn at least 20% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings, but you elect not to work.

During the Any Occupation Period no LTD Benefits will be payable for any period when you are able to work in Any Occupation and able to earn at least 20% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings, but you elect not to work.

B. Return To Work Incentive

You may serve your Benefit Waiting Period while working if you meet either the Own Occupation Definition Of Disability or the Partial Disability Definition.

You are eligible for the Return To Work Incentive on the first day you work after the Benefit Waiting Period if LTD Benefits are payable on that date. The Return To Work Incentive changes 12 months after that date, as follows:

1. During the first 12 months, your Work Earnings will be Deductible Income as determined in a., b. and c:
 - a. Determine the amount of your LTD Benefit as if there were no Deductible Income, and add your Work Earnings to that amount.
 - b. Determine 100% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.
 - c. If a. is greater than b., the difference will be Deductible Income.
2. After those first 12 months, 50% of your Work Earnings will be Deductible Income.

C. Work Earnings Definition

Work Earnings means your gross monthly earnings from work you perform while Disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you worked as much as you are able to, considering your Disability, in work that is reasonably available:

- a. In your Own Occupation during the Own Occupation Period; and
- b. In Any Occupation during the Any Occupation Period.

Work Earnings includes earnings from your Employer, any other employer, or self-employment, and any sick pay, vacation pay, annual or personal leave pay or other salary continuation earned or accrued while working.

Earnings from work you perform will be included in Work Earnings when you have the right to receive them. If you are paid in a lump sum or on a basis other than monthly, we will prorate your Work Earnings over the period of time to which they apply. If no period of time is stated, we will use a reasonable one.

In determining your Work Earnings we:

1. Will use the financial accounting method you use for income tax purposes, if you use that method on a consistent basis.
2. Will not be limited to the taxable income you report to the Internal Revenue Service.
3. May ignore expenses under section 179 of the IRC as a deduction from your gross earnings.
4. May ignore depreciation as a deduction from your gross earnings.
5. May adjust the financial information you give us in order to clearly reflect your Work Earnings.

If we determine that your earnings vary substantially from month to month, we may determine your Work Earnings by averaging your earnings over the most recent three-month period. During the Own Occupation Period you will no longer be Disabled when your average Work Earnings over the last three months exceed 80% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings. During the Any Occupation Period you will no longer be Disabled when your average Work Earnings over the last three months exceed 65% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.

LT2.RW.01X

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION EXPENSE BENEFIT

If you are Disabled and return to work in any occupation for any employer, not including self employment, as a result of a reasonable accommodation made by such employer, we will pay that employer a Reasonable Accommodation Expense Benefit as shown in the Coverage Features.

The Reasonable Accommodation Expense Benefit is payable only if the reasonable accommodation is approved by us in writing prior to its implementation.

LT.RA.01

TEMPORARY RECOVERY

You may temporarily recover from your Disability, and then become Disabled again from the same cause or causes, without having to serve a new Benefit Waiting Period. Temporary Recovery means you cease to be Disabled for no longer than the applicable Allowable Period.

A. Allowable Periods

1. During the Benefit Waiting Period: a total of 30 days of recovery.
2. During the Maximum Benefit Period: 180 days for each period of recovery.

B. Effect Of Temporary Recovery

If your Temporary Recovery does not exceed the Allowable Periods, 1 through 5 below will apply.

1. The Predisability Earnings used to determine your LTD Benefit will not change.
2. The period of Temporary Recovery will not count toward your Benefit Waiting Period, your Maximum Benefit Period or your Own Occupation Period.
3. No LTD Benefits will be payable for the period of Temporary Recovery.
4. No LTD Benefits will be payable after benefits become payable to you under any other group long term disability insurance policy under which you become insured during your period of Temporary Recovery.
5. Except as stated above, the provisions of the Group Policy will be applied as if there had been no interruption of your Disability.

WHEN LTD BENEFITS END

Your LTD Benefits end automatically on the earliest of 1 through 4 below.

1. The date you are no longer Disabled.
2. The date your Maximum Benefit Period ends unless LTD Benefits are continued by the Lifetime Security Benefit. See Additional Benefits for the Severely Disabled.
3. The date you die.
4. The date benefits become payable under any other group long term disability insurance policy under which you become insured during a period of Temporary Recovery.

LT.BE.01

PREDISABILITY EARNINGS

Your Predisability Earnings will be based on your earnings in effect as shown in the Coverage Features. Any subsequent change in your earnings will not affect your Predisability Earnings.

For members of the X22 Employer Group, Predisability Earnings means (a) your total monthly rate of earnings from your Employer if your county participates in the South Carolina Public Employee Benefit Authority, or (b) the portion of your monthly rate of earnings associated with your Aid to Subdivisions appropriation, if your county does not participate in the South Carolina Public Employee Benefit Authority.

For all other Members, Predisability Earnings means your monthly rate of earnings from your Employer.

Predisability Earnings include:

1. Contributions you make through a salary reduction agreement with your Employer to:
 - a. An Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 401(k), 403(b), 408(k), or 457 deferred compensation arrangement; or
 - b. An executive nonqualified deferred compensation arrangement.
2. Longevity pay.
3. Shift differential pay.
4. Amounts contributed to your fringe benefits according to a salary reduction agreement under an IRC Section 125 plan.
5. Compensation earned during regular summer sessions by university teaching staff.

Predisability Earnings does not include:

1. Bonuses.
2. Commissions
3. Overtime pay.
4. Your Employer's contributions on your behalf to any deferred compensation arrangement or pension plan.
5. Any renewal commissions, overwriting renewal commissions, or service fees.
6. Any compensation from an Employer that is not participating in the South Carolina Public Employee Benefit Authority.
7. Any other extra compensation.

If you are paid on an annual contract basis, your monthly rate of earnings is one-twelfth (1/12th) of your annual contract salary.

If you are paid hourly, your monthly rate of earnings is based on your hourly pay rate multiplied by the number of hours you are regularly scheduled to work per month, but not more than 173 hours.

LT.PD.22X

DEDUCTIBLE INCOME

Subject to Exceptions To Deductible Income, Deductible Income means:

1. Sick pay or other salary continuation as shown in the Coverage Features.
2. Your Work Earnings, as described in the Return To Work Incentive.
3. Any amount you receive or are eligible to receive because of your disability under any workers' compensation law or similar law, including amounts for partial or total disability, whether permanent, temporary, or vocational.
4. Any amount you, your spouse, or your children under age 18 receive or are eligible to receive because of your disability or retirement under:
 - a. The Federal Social Security Act;
 - b. The Canada Pension Plan;
 - c. The Quebec Pension Plan; or
 - d. Any similar plan, act, or law.

Benefits your spouse or children receive or are eligible to receive because of your disability are Deductible Income regardless of marital status, custody, or place of residence.

The Coverage Features states which one of the following options applies to your Social Security benefits.

- a. Full offset: Both the primary benefit (the benefit awarded to you) and dependents benefits are Deductible Income.
 - b. Primary offset: Primary benefits are Deductible Income, but dependents benefits are not.
 - c. Partial dependents offset: Primary benefits are Deductible Income. Dependents benefits are Deductible Income as determined below:
 - (1) Determine the amount of your LTD Benefit as if there were no Deductible Income, and add your dependents benefits to that amount.
 - (2) Multiply your Predisability Earnings by the dependents limit.
 - (3) If (1) is greater than (2), the difference will be Deductible Income.
5. Any amount you receive or are eligible to receive because of your disability under any state disability income benefit law or similar law.
 6. Any amount you receive or are eligible to receive because of your disability under any other group long term disability insurance plan that insures any portion of your Predisability Earnings.
 7. Your Deductible Income from your Employer's retirement plan, as described in Retirement Plan Offset.
 8. Any amount you receive or are eligible to receive because of your disability under the South Carolina self-funded long term disability plan before reduction by any amount received under the Subrogation provision of the South Carolina self-funded long term disability plan. If your Employer terminates participation under the South Carolina self-funded long term disability plan and becomes responsible to fund your benefits under that plan, you will be deemed eligible to receive such benefits even if your Employer fails to fund or pay them.

9. Any amount you receive or are eligible to receive from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgement, settlement or other method. If you notify us before filing suit or settling your claim against such third party, the amount used as Deductible Income will be reduced by a pro rata share of your costs of recovery, including reasonable attorney fees.
10. Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement, or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above, whether disputed or undisputed.

LT.DI.02X

RETIREMENT PLAN OFFSET (RPO)

A. Deductible Income

Subject to the RPO Exceptions and in accordance with the RPO Rules below, your Deductible Income from your Employer's retirement plan will be the benefit determined below which provides the largest monthly reduction in your LTD Benefit even if you elect to receive a different benefit or no benefit. If you receive two or more of these benefits, the benefits will be combined for purposes of determining your Deductible Income.

Any disability benefit or retirement benefit, including service retirement benefit you (1) receive, (2) are eligible to receive, or (3) would have been eligible to receive from the Employer's retirement plan had timely application been made.

Your Employer's retirement plan includes any retirement plan established, maintained or participated in by your Employer and to which you or your Employer make contributions, including a public employee retirement system, a state teacher retirement system or a plan arranged and maintained by a union or employee association for the benefit of its members.

B. RPO Exceptions

Deductible Income from your Employer's retirement plan does not include the amounts below:

1. That portion of any retirement plan benefit attributable to your contributions, determined as follows:
 - a. Multiply the total of your accumulated retirement plan contributions and earnings (as reported by the South Carolina Retirement Systems) by the applicable conversion factor from the table below.
 - b. Divide the product by 12.
 - c. The result of a. and b. will not be Deductible Income from your Employer's retirement plan.

CONVERSION FACTORS

Age at Disability	Conversion Factor
44 and under	.041
45 through 53	.048
54 through 59	.054
60 through 63	.061
64 through 66	.068
67 through 68	.075
69 through 71	.082
72 through 73	.088
74 through 75	.095
76 and above	.102

2. Any lump sum refund, withdrawal or distribution of your contributions and earnings you receive because you are not vested under the plan.

C. RPO Rules

1. You will be considered eligible to receive disability benefits from your Employer's retirement plan unless you provide satisfactory written proof that you made timely application, including any appeals we deem appropriate, for such benefits and were denied or that a timely application would have been denied had you applied.
2. If a disability benefit or retirement benefit is your Deductible Income from your Employer's retirement plan because it provides the largest reduction in your LTD Benefit, but you choose not to receive that benefit, your Deductible Income will be the disability benefit or retirement benefit you could have received.
3. If we cannot determine from your Employer's retirement plan the amount of disability benefit or retirement benefit you are or would have been eligible to receive, we will determine your Deductible Income using a lifetime monthly annuity amount, with no survivor income. The annuity will be based on total plan contributions made by you or on your behalf, including your Employer's contributions and rollover contributions, plus earnings, and on the life expectancy of a person your age on the following dates:
 - a. With respect to a disability benefit, the date you first become eligible for a disability benefit:
 - b. With respect to a retirement benefit, the date you first become eligible for a retirement benefit; or
 - c. The date LTD Benefits become payable, if we cannot determine the date in a. or b.

LT.RP.01X

LT.ED.06

RULES FOR DEDUCTIBLE INCOME

A. Monthly Equivalents

Each month we will determine your LTD Benefit using the Deductible Income for the same monthly period, even if you actually receive the Deductible Income in another month.

If you are paid Deductible Income in a lump sum or by a method other than monthly, we will determine your LTD Benefit using a prorated amount. We will use the period of time to which the Deductible Income applies. If no period of time is stated, we will use a reasonable one.

B. Your Duty To Pursue Deductible Income

You must pursue Deductible Income for which you may be eligible, including any appeals we deem appropriate. We may ask for written documentation of your pursuit of Deductible Income. You must provide it within 60 days after we mail you our request. Otherwise, we may reduce your LTD Benefits by the amount we estimate you would be eligible to receive upon proper pursuit of the Deductible Income.

C. Pending Deductible Income

We will not deduct pending Deductible Income until it becomes payable. You must notify us of the amount of the Deductible Income when it is approved. You must repay us for the resulting overpayment of your claim.

D. Overpayment Of Claim

We will notify you of the amount of any overpayment of your claim under any group disability insurance policy issued by us or under the South Carolina self-funded long term disability plan. You must immediately repay us. You will not receive any LTD Benefits until we have been repaid in full. In the meantime, any LTD Benefits paid, including the Minimum LTD Benefit and any LTD Benefits paid under the South Carolina self-funded long term disability plan, will be applied to reduce the amount of the overpayment. We may charge you interest at the legal rate for any overpayment which is not repaid within 30 days after we first mail you notice of the amount of the overpayment.

LT.RU.01X
