

Dropping a dependent due to divorce

This checklist can help guide you through the process of dropping a dependent from coverage. Please note, not all items apply to all members.

Applicable insurance changes

You must make changes within 31 days of the special eligibility situation. You cannot drop your own coverage; you can drop dependents' coverage only. You can change or add certain coverage. Health, dental, vision and Dependent Life-Child changes are effective on the first of the month after the divorce is final. Optional Life changes are effective on the first day of month following divorce if no medical evidence is needed; otherwise, it is effective on the first day of the month following approval. Dependent Life-Spouse changes are effective on the date of divorce.

Change coverage level:

- Health plan.
- Dental plan.
- Vision plan.

Other changes:

- Enroll in or increase Optional Life coverage up to $50,000 without medical evidence. More than $50,000 requires medical evidence.
- Cancel or decrease Optional Life coverage.
- Drop Dependent Life-Spouse coverage.
- Change MoneyPlus flexible spending accounts.
- Enroll in or change Health Savings Account, if applicable.
- Update life insurance beneficiaries, if applicable.

Applicable retirement changes

A divorce does not automatically change the designated beneficiary for your retirement plan. You must request changes to your beneficiaries, if desired.

- Update retirement plan beneficiaries with PEBA.
- Update State ORP beneficiaries with service provider, if applicable.
- Update Deferred Comp beneficiaries with third-party administrator, if applicable.
- Retired members of SCRS and PORS might be eligible to select a new payment option or change a beneficiary for an existing payment option within five years after the date of divorce.
